

To: Interested Stakeholders

From: Cathie Petsch and Lea Ann Johnson

Re: Lincoln Community Learning Centers Initiative

- Lea Ann Johnson will represent the Community Learning Centers as a member of Leadership Lincoln XIX.
- Megan Panzer, UNL Senior in Elementary Education is the new CLC intern at Elliott. Carrie Fray, UNL Senior in Elementary Education will intern at Pershing/Mickle CLCs
- Newly appointed members of the CLC Leadership Council include Dave Polson, Sterling Communications; Mary Bills-Strand, Woods Bros. Realty; Ravi Maniktala, ME Group; Kent Seacrest, attorney at law; Wendy Birdsall, Lincoln Chamber of Commerce; Marjorie Kostelnik, UNL College of Education & Human Services and Patte Newman, Lincoln City Council.
- Phil Schoo, Barbara Bartle, Lea Ann Johnson and Cathie Petsch will present a workshop on “Maintaining Program Quality” at The Children Aid Society’s Community Schools Practicum to be held November 5-6 in New York City.
- Sterling Communication Inc. is working with the Communications/Public Engagement Committee on a new CLC “look”...so stay tuned!
- The Kid$ense financial literacy pilot underwritten by Woods Bros. Realty and Home Real Estate is up and running at Elliott CLC and scheduled to start at Saratoga next week. The teacher/realtor teams include Pattie O’Malley, Judy Sasek, xxx xxx, Teri Ernst. Realtors substitutes who attended the in service training conducted by Kathie Phillips include Mary Bills-Strand, Lynne Schroeder, Doug Fenn and Julia Yank.
- Lincoln’s Carnival of Lights: A Celebration of Life Afterschool will be held Thursday, October 9 at State Fair Park Lancaster Building.